The Parts

camille: F, 18-24, LEAD

After graduating from university, she took a big step in her life to move in with her boyfriend. Removed from her home and without the context of school to ground her, she falls into a pattern of behaviors feigning adulthood, adventure, and whimsy.

dean: M, 22-30, LEAD

Camille's boyfriend. A few years older than her and starting a career in architecture, he genuinely cares about Camille, but has grown tired of the performative nature of their relationship, as well as Camille's lack of direction in her own life.

blake: M, 18-24, LEAD

Camille's childhood friend. Very kind hearted but not particularly ambitious, he still lives in their hometown and didn't go to college. He has feelings for Camille that neither he nor she has ever openly acknowledged. This is the first time that he has ever visited Camille.
